TARYN A. MERKL, United States Magistrate Judge:

Nashay Black ("Plaintiff") filed a Complaint against 7714 Entertainment, Corp., John Doe 1, John Doe 2, and John Doe 3 ("Defendants") on August 26, 2021. See ECF No. 1. You are receiving this notice as one of those Defendants.

Plaintiff alleges that you owe her unpaid wages and penalties under federal and state law, as well as damages related to an alleged assault on Plaintiff by employees of the Defendant 7714 Entertainment, Corp. Plaintiff is seeking over fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in damages.

Plaintiff claims that you have received written notice of this lawsuit.

You are receiving this notice because you have not answered or otherwise responded to the Court about Plaintiff's allegations.

Plaintiff has asked the Court to enter a default judgment in her favor against you. Stated differently, Plaintiff has asked the Court to conclude (1) that you do not oppose Plaintiff's allegations, or disagree with her claims, and (2) that Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment in the full amount they claim you owe her. This amount may total tens of thousands of dollars for which all defendants may be together responsible.

If you continue to fail to participate in this case, the Court may grant Plaintiff's request and enter the default judgment.

A judgment is a public record with potential consequences, particularly if you do not pay the judgment. Plaintiff may be allowed to enforce an unpaid judgment through methods such as attachment, imposition of a lien or garnishment.

Enclosed is an Order scheduling a Default Hearing for April 7, 2022, at 10:00 a.m. to discuss Plaintiff's motion asking the Court to enter a default judgment against you. You may participate in the conference by calling 877-336-1839 and typing in the access code 3914302. You may also have a lawyer appear for you.

On or before April 7, 2022, if you would like to inform the Court and Plaintiff of your views, including as to whether you received notice about the lawsuit prior to this notice, or what your factual and legal objections to Plaintiff's claims are, you may send a letter or statement to the Court and to Plaintiff's counsel, whose information is at the bottom of the page. If you did not receive a copy of the complaint, you may request one from Plaintiff's lawyer or the Clerk of Court. Any letter or statement to the Court should clearly identify the case name and number from the caption of this notice and can be mailed or delivered to:
